SCHEDULE 2
(Subsection 2(2))
WATERS ON WHICH POWER-DRIVEN VESSELS AND VESSELS DRIVEN BY ELECTRICAL PROPULSION ARE PROHIBITED

PART 2

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Item	Column 1 Name Given by the Gazetteer of Canada or Description	Column 2 Local Name	Column 3 General Location	Column 4 Location Reference (Gazetteer of Canada Reference System)
100.	The waters of the Columbia River and its tributaries lying within the flood plain of the Columbia River north of 50°21′10″ N (approximately 1.6 km northwest of Fairmont Hot Springs) and south and east of a point at 51°28′48″ N 117°09′33″ W, on the northernmost tip of a small island, approximately 1.8 km south of the Trans Canada Highway bridge at Donald, British Columbia, but excluding the waters of Windermere Lake and the main channel of the Columbia River and its tributaries (see Note 3)	Columbia Wetlands	Fairmont Hot Springs to Golden	48°59′59″ N 117°37′59″ W
101.	Cowichan Bay	Cowichan Bay (Cow Bay)	near Duncan, in the southeast end of Vancouver Island	48°45′ 123°36′

Note 1: The prohibition applies during the period beginning on August 1 and ending on August 31.

Note 2: The prohibition applies during the period beginning on May 1 and ending on September 30.

Note 3: The prohibition does not apply to a person engaged in commercial trapping activities who holds a permit issued by the Province of British Columbia to engage in those activities or to a person engaged in subsistence hunting or trapping.