Standing Offer Notice of Revision No. 003

Title: Box Lunches

This standing offer is hereby revised as follows:

- (1) Reference: Annex “B” - Basis of Payment - Pricing Sheets - Box Lunch Menus and mandatory Requirements and Specifications

DELETE current Annex “B”; and INSERT Annex “B” revised 2012-11-23 which must be submitted with the offer.

AND;

This solicitation is hereby amended to provide the following questions and answers:

Q1. Can I submit a couple of different kaiser buns for approval?

A1. You must submit kaiser buns as specified in the revised menus.

Q2. At No. 6 of Annex “B”, it indicates the label must be placed on the “FRONT END of the box facing out”. What does this mean?

A2. The labels must be placed at the Front End of the Box facing out (like a shoe box) to be able to read the menu when they are stacked on top of one another without needing to pull out the box.

The following clauses must replace the clauses currently in the solicitation document:

Manufacturer's Nutrition Facts, where requested, must be provided with your offer OR within 24 hours after bid closing to the standing offer Authority at Public Works and Government Services Canada (PWGSC).

Offerors should indicate on each "Manufacturer's Nutrition Facts Sheets" the menus in which that product is included. The Brand Name for that meat product to be provided must also be indicated. The Manufacturer's Product Code could be requested, if required, after bid closing.

Failure to be compliant with the above requirements will render your offer non-responsive and it will be rejected!

PART 5 - CERTIFICATIONS

Offerors must provide the required certifications and related documentation to be issued a standing offer. Canada will declare an offer non-responsive if the required certifications and related documentation are not completed and submitted as requested.

Compliance with the certifications offerors provide to Canada is subject to verification by Canada during the offer evaluation period (before issuance of a standing offer) and after issuance of a standing offer. The Standing Offer Authority will have the right to ask for additional information to verify offerors' compliance with the certifications before issuance of a standing offer. The offer will be declared non-responsive if any certification made by the Offeror is untrue, whether made knowingly or unknowingly. Failure to comply with the certifications or to comply with the request of the Standing Offer Authority for additional information will also render the offer non-responsive.

1. Mandatory - Certifications Required Precedent to Issuance of a Standing Offer

1.1 Code of Conduct and Certifications - Related documentation

1.1.1 By submitting an offer, the Offeror certifies, for himself and his affiliates, to be in compliance with the Code of Conduct and Certifications clause of the Standard instructions. The related documentation hereinafter mentioned will help Canada in confirming that the certifications are true. By submitting an offer, the Offeror certifies that it is aware, and that its affiliates are aware, that Canada may request additional information, certifications, consent forms and other evidentiary elements proving identity or eligibility. Canada may also verify the information provided by the Offeror, including the information relating to the acts or convictions specified herein, through independent research, use of any government resources or by contacting third parties. Canada will declare non-responsive any offer in respect of which the information requested is missing or inaccurate, or in respect of which the information contained in the certifications is found to be untrue, in any respect, by Canada. The Offeror and any of the Offeror' affiliates, will also be required to remain free and clear of any acts or convictions specified herein during the entire period of the Standing Offer and any call-ups made against the Standing Offer.

Offerors who are incorporated, including those submitting offers as a joint venture, must provide with their offer or promptly thereafter a complete list of names of all individuals who are currently directors of the Offeror. Offerors submitting offers as sole proprietorship, including those submitting offers as a joint venture, must provide the name of the owner with their offer or promptly thereafter. Offerors submitting offers as societies, firms, partnerships or associations of persons do not need to provide lists of names. If the required names have not been received by the time the evaluation of offers is completed, Canada will inform the Offeror of a time frame within which to provide the information. Failure to comply will render the offer non-responsive. Providing the required names is a mandatory requirement for issuance of a standing offer and award of a contract.

Canada may, at any time, request that an Offeror provide properly completed and Signed Consent Forms (Consent to a Criminal Record Verification form- PWGSC-TPSGC 229) (<http://www.tpsgc-pwgsc.gc.ca/app-acq/forms/formulaires-forms-eng.html>) for any or all individuals aforementioned within the time specified. Failure to provide such Consent Forms within the time period provided will result in the offer being declared non-responsive.

PART 6 - STANDING OFFER AND RESULTING CONTRACT CLAUSES

3.1 General Conditions

2005 (2012/11/19) General Conditions - Standing Offers - Goods or Services, apply to and form part of the Standing Offer.

4. Term of Standing Offer

4.1 Period of the Standing Offer

The period for making call-ups against the Standing Offer is from 01 February, 2013 to 31 January, 2014.

11. Priority of Documents

If there is a discrepancy between the wording of any documents that appear on the list, the wording of the document that first appears on the list has priority over the wording of any document that subsequently appears on the list.
