Amendment 002 is raised to amend the following:A. Question from suppliers and answers from Canada.*Question #1

"32." beside each item, Is there a specific product number/sku to be used for each particular product ? CGSB SPEC, on our spreadsheet, it states that... but I notice now that it got missed from our spreadsheet to the RFSO

Answer #1

CGSB Specs are now located next to each item in the Basis of Payment.

Question #2

Packing format (layered)? Interleaved and layer packaged

Answer #2

Interleaved and layered packaged

Question #3

Style – various depending on product... see spreadsheet submitted

Need further clarification on the preferred packaging formats. (Ie. Individually boxed, vacuum sealed in see through packaging no box etc...) - Any visual aids would assist us in being able to visualize what the packing is to look like.

Answer #3

The preferred packaging format depends on each product, please refer to each individual item.

Question #4

Should delivery/ gas surcharge if applicable be shown separately? or is this a cost that should be factored into the product cost? I would say it should be incorporated into the food cost.

Answer #4

Yes, it should be incorporated into your pricing

Question #5

Should one quote for each item for the duration of the contract be provided? , or should we provide a quote on an annual basis. Ie. Year 1 , Year 2, Year 3. Since we are dealing with a commodity and prices may change unexpectedly should a clause be included for any sudden spike in costs? inflationary factors? or do we simply provide a best estimate?

Answer #5

This standing offer is for One year and I am only asking you for pricing for that period of time. Please quote on the one year requirement only.
