Amendment 006 is raised to:

1) Address questions 025-026 from Industry.

Question #025: Assuming a RFP is released by or on September 2013, can you provide estimated delivery time after award, and the delivery rate (i.e. When you will need delivery to start, how many units per month, when you will need the delivery of entire quantity to be completed, etc)?

Answer # 025: Given that this potential acquisition targets production-ready, WGS qualified, in-service terminal equipment, relatively rapid hardware delivery is expected. Typically, the RFP would have the supplier identify the earliest possible delivery schedule, however, it is likely that at least six (6) units will be required within 180 days of contract award, with the balance deliverable over the course of the following 24 months. This is not a commitment that these are the exact timelines to be reflected in any RFP.

Question #026: Can you confirm that the Response package to this P&A should be returned to the PWGSC Bid Receiving office?

Answer #026: Yes. Bids to be submitted to the address as is shown on the front page of the P&A.

All other terms and conditions remain unchanged.
