This amendment 002 is being issued to address enquiries from potential bidders and make changes to the solicitation:

Q1: On page 19, the Request For Standing Offer (RFSO) states that "substitution of items purchased is not acceptable and will not be permitted," yet in Annex B, manufacturer and part number is only provided for lines 1-57, and not for lines 58-81. What items are subject to substitutions and are there specific manufacturers and part numbers requested for lines 58-81?

R1: No substitutions will be accepted for items 1-57. Items 58-81 are general and Offeror's prices will be on items they propose that meet the item specifications. At the time of Call-Up, 1.5 of Annex A, Requirement, will apply.

Q2: Would the Crown revise the requirement to allow for lower-cost alternatives for items 1-57 that are compliant with the requested solution to be provided should substantiation of the applicability be provided with the bid submission?

R2: No, lower cost alternatives will not be accepted. However, the Project Authority may accept substitution of items as per 1.5 of Annex A, Requirement

Q3: Will the Crown accept a three week solicitation extension?

R3: No, the solicitation closing date will remain December 11, 2012.

At Annex A, 1. Requirement, 1.5:

Delete: Unless specified by the Project Authority, substitution of items purchased is not acceptable and will not be permitted.

Insert: Unless approved by the Project Authority, substitution of items purchased is not acceptable and will not be permitted.

All other terms and conditions apply
