Solicitation # M2989-122057/A

The following questions and answers are for clarification purposes only.

If due to the clarification an amendment to the solicitation is required, the amendment will be stated herein as “The above referenced solicitation is amended as follows”:

Question 3.7)

Scope of Services: Where do we define the work XXXXX will do and the type of support we are committing to providing? If this RFP is going to serve in lieu of our standard agreements, it should have this language.

Response 3.7)

Bidders may include in their proposal the work and Scope of Service that they will provide however the work, Scope and Level of Services must comply with the mandatory requirements of the RFP

Question 3.8)

Page #18: Can we change it from a perpetual license to an annual license?

Response 3.8)

Annual License is sufficient. The RFP will be amended accordingly.

Comment 3.9)

Media on which Licensed Software - CD-ROM or DVD must be Delivered

Our system is categorized as a software as a service, therefore we do not have a CD-ROM or DVD of the software to provide.

Response 3.9)

If the software solution is to be installed by the RCMP on RCMP owned equipment, a CD-Rom or DVD containing the software is required. If the software solution is to be installed remotely by the Contractor onto RCMP owned equipment then a CD-Rom or DVD is not required.

Question 3.10

Regarding question #1(3.7), can we:

- * Attach our standard agreements to the RFP
- * Put language in the RFP and/or in our agreements that states that if there is any part of our standard agreements that contradict with the RFP, then the language in the RFP will prevail.

That will avoid us having to compare the language in our agreements with the RFP, as well as all the additional referenced documents. With this "catchall" disclaimer there is no ambiguity about which language prevails.

Response 3.10

There are too many unknown and by including your standard agreement in your proposal, your bid may be considered non-responsive. My recommendation is to not include your standard agreement.

Part 2 BIDDER INSTRUCTION, paragraph 2

“Bidders who submit a bid agree to be bound by the instructions, clauses and conditions of the bid solicitation and accept the clauses and conditions of the resulting contract.”
