This amendment to the Solicitation is raised in order to publish questions and answers received up to February 15, 2013.

Q.1 Item j. Two Tribach w/o plummet, 1" or better torsional stiffness -----> Total Station is shipped with one Tribach, do you want to have one spare or two additional tribach. Also does these tribach are two be used with the prisms as backside?

A.1. - Section 1 Item J (Two (2) Tribach w/o plummet, 1" or better torsional stiffness ) is to be used with Item I (Two (2) Single Round Prism and holder) . These items are to be used either as a backsight over a known monument and/or a foresight to an unknown station. Two tribrachs are required to accomplish this procedure and must have the same accuracy as the ETS Tribrach.

Q.1.1 If so you will need a carrier for these prisms?

A.1.1 Yes, carriers will be required. Preferrably a hard case that stores Items I & J together.

Q.1.2 Since Tribach doesn't have a plummet, the carrier will need a plummet (optical or laser)

A.1.2 The MCE Survey Section currently has laser plummets in operation and the SOR reflects what is still required for purchase.

Q.2 In Section 2, 10 GNSS Receiver, item n. 2 Laser Plummets and 2 tribach: the Laser plummet are usually made for prisms and not GNSS receiver. Is this what you want. An adaptor can be add to Laser plummet to have a 5/8" screw that will fit with GNSS receiver. Do you want that?

A.2 Yes, a 5/8" screw is required on both the laser plummets.

Q.3. In Section 3. item e. One Tribach... Again there is no carrier, is this what you want?

A.3. Yes, a carrier is required, preferably a hard case.

Q.4. So in total you are asking for 14 Tribach w/o plummet and only 2 laser plummet carrier.

A.4. Yes, this is correct. Section One - (8 total), section Two - (2 total), section Three - (4 total)

Q.5. "There is no Tripod in all requested equipment? Is this normal? "

A.5. MCE Survey section currently has enough tripods to support any mission and do not require to purchase any at this time.

All other terms and conditions remain the same
