The purpose of this amendment is to respond to a question relating to this bid solicitation as detailed below:

#	Question	Response
1	A compliant bid response may contain software where the bidder is also the Software Publisher combined with third-party software where the bidder needs to get authorization from the Software Publisher. In the case of third party software being bid, can the bidder include additional terms applicable to the third-party software with their proposal to allow the publisher to authorize the bid? There are end user licence agreements that have been accepted by the Government of Canada in the past, however the terms and conditions set out in this RFP do not reflect these.	No, bidders cannot include additional terms and conditions in their bid. As set out in Part 2, Bidder Instructions, bidders who submit a bid agree to be bound by the instructions, clauses and conditions of the bid solicitation and accept the clauses and conditions of the resulting contract.

ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE BID SOLICITATION REMAIN UNCHANGED
