This amendment is raised to answer to the following questions:

Q 1 During the Cocktail reception, is the red/white wine, and beer to be included? Or will their be a cash bar?

A 1 Included (not a cash bar), see page 22

Q 2 Is the wine and beer to be kosher? Or just the wine? And can their be regular wine aswell?

A 2 Regular wine and beer. No kosher alcohol required.

Q 3 For the OPTIONAL reception dinner, Red/white wine, is this to be placed on every table or served by staff?

A 3 Red and white wine on the table

Q 4 What are the EXHIBIT SPACE REQUIREMENTS? are there booths (ex. 10ft x 10 ft) and how many?

A 4 It is anticipated that four exhibits will be displayed in the conference foyer area. These will be in the format of large multi panel pop-ups of approximately 8' x 10'. A display table will also be required for printed materials.

Q 5 Can the large groups of meeting space be on one floor and the smaller groups on the floor above or below? Basically 2 floors of meeting space.

A 5 Yes, the meeting space may be divided over 2 floors, as indicated in the question.

Q 6 The solicitation states that Canada is NOT responsible for room payments, but the guest room rate is asked for (page 29 of 38). Will this rate be used to award contract in any way? or will guest be allowed to choose from a lower hotel rate at another hotel? (ex. If our hotel is $250 per night, and there is a block on hold for Canada, can the guests choose another hotel lets say at a $120 per night rate?

A 6 Room rate is not part of the evaluation. As delegates are not Canadian government employees, we cannot enforce the use of your hotel. It is believed that delegates will mainly prefer to stay at the same hotel as the event. It belongs to the hotel to provide a good rate to attract delegates. We want to block a certain number of rooms to facilitate bookings by delegates coming from overseas.

Q 7 Or is the guest room rate, just for internal use?

A 7 The event is an international event. Delegates will be informed of the availability of the rate for a certain number of rooms until a certain date at the hotel.

All other terms and conditions to remain the same.
