in British Columbia (1-4 units), File # 201301168

Question 10

With regards to the Designated Area region of BC Vancouver Island does that include the gulf islands, Salt Spring, Pender Island, Galiano, etc?

Answer 10

The Region of Vancouver Island will be for properties falling under the jurisdiction of the Vancouver Island and Victoria Real Estate Boards. Based upon a verbal inquiry to each of these Real Estate Boards, it appears that the Gulf Islands are within the jurisdiction of one or other of these Boards depending upon where the island is located. As such the Gulf Islands would be included in the Designated Region of Vancouver Island.
