7. Online Questionnaire and Focus Groups

Suppliers may also provide comments and suggestions on the RFSA by filling out the online questionnaire or participating in focus groups.

The online questionnaire will be available during the posting period of this RFI. Suppliers can access the online questionnaire at:

<http://tpsgc-pwgsc1.sondages-surveys.ca/surveys/AndreProux/the-translation-bureau-questionnaire/?l=en>

Suppliers interested in participating in focus groups may do so in person or by videoconference. A public notice will be issued during the posting of this RFI in order to inform suppliers of the dates and locations of the focus groups.

Suppliers' participation in focus groups is voluntary. Canada will not cover any costs or expenses incurred by suppliers in connection with participation in focus groups.

Participants in focus groups will be selected on a first-come, first-served basis and in accordance with the principle of representativeness. Only one representative per firm or association may participate in the focus groups. Canada reserves the right to determine the composition of the focus groups and to cancel one or more sessions. Participants will be advised of any cancellations.

Please note that participants in focus groups may also submit comments and suggestions on the RFSA using the online questionnaire.
