An SO is not a Contract and does not commit PWGSC to procure or contract for any goods, services or both.

Any resulting SO constitutes an Offer made by an Offeror for the provision of certain services to Canada at prearranged prices, under set terms and conditions, that is open for acceptance by one or more Identified User(s) on behalf of Canada during a specified period of time.

A separate contract is formed each time a call-up for the provision of services is made against a SO. When a call-up is made, it constitutes an unconditional acceptance by Canada of the Offeror's Offer for the provision, to the extent specified in such call-up, of the services described in the SO. Canada's liability will be limited to the actual value of the call-ups made in accordance with the SO by the duly authorized Identified User(s) within the period specified in the call-up.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question 001

Where can I get a copy of Annex H to sign and submit?

Answer 001

The Annex H - Existing THS Standing Offer Holders Certification is found on Page 69 in the current RFSO solicitation E60ZN-110002/E accessible at <https://buyandsell.gc.ca/procurement-data/tender-notice/PW-ZN-002-26501>

Question 002

After downloading the original RFSO and the two (2) amendments, we cannot find the actual RFSO.

Answer 002

PWGSC encountered technical difficulties in the initial publication of the RFSO solicitation. Bidders may access the complete RFSO solicitation documents and related attachments, published as E60ZN-110002/E, amendment number 2, directly from PWGSC tenders site at: <https://buyandsell.gc.ca/procurement-data/tender-notice/PW-ZN-002-26501>

Question 003

Our firm does not wish to make any changes to our existing SO, can we assume that we only need to submit the cover page of the RFSO and the Annex H to retain our status and be compliant?

Answer 003

All existing THS SO holders who are not changing their technical offer on file with PWGSC and are interested in being grandfathered and retaining their current standing offer must review the current solicitation posted on the Government Electronic Tendering System (www.BuyandSell.gc.ca/tenders) (GETS) since October 25, 2013, and submit as a minimum a signed certification (Annex H), along with the first page of the Request for Standing Offer following the bid submission requirements specified in Part 3, article 1.2 Submission Grid.

Question 004

- a. PART 3 - Offer Preparation Instructions - Section 1.2 Submission Grid - The submission grid shows that existing THS Holder who are not making any changes to their offer are to provide a signed RFSO cover page and a completed Annex H. In terms of Section 1.2, Annex H is the "Existing THS Standing Offer Holders Certification", it is assumed that a submission of an existing THS Holder that is not changing their offer would be considered to be "Section II: Certifications" and would need to be submitted in two hard copies. Please confirm this is correct.
- b. PART 3 - Offer Preparation Instructions - Section 1.1 - For "Section I: Technical Offer", it states that the soft copies are to be provided on USB. Please confirm that soft copies will also be accepted on CD/DVD?
- c. Is the Crown is requesting two hardcopies and one electronic file on USB?

Answer 004

- a. Existing THS SO holders who are not changing their technical offer currently on file with PWGSC may provide under separate cover their responses by Section I and Section II, as noted in Part 3-Offer Preparation Instructions. Bidders are required to submit two (2) hard copies of the required documentation, soft copies are optional, specified in Part 3, Article 1.2 Submission Grid and follow the Submission of Offers instructions in Part 2 - Offeror Instructions, article 2.
- b. Soft copies of the required documentation are optional, therefore, CD/DVD are not accepted at this time.
- c. See above answer (a).

Answer 005

Question 006

- a. Considering that we are only submitting the RFSO cover page and Annex "H", does PWGSC require all of these copies in both hard & soft copies?
- b. For the technical, do we submit the signed RFSO cover page as the Technical submission, and then submit Annex "H" as the Certification submission?

Answer 006

a.b. Canada has provided a response similar to this question, see Question and Answer 004.

Question 007

- a. Please clarify if E60ZN-110002/E will be replacing E60ZN-110002/D and is E60ZN-110002/E no longer valid?
- b. Can I still submit under E60ZN-110002/D which had a closing date of December 31, 2014 for quarter Q3?

Answer 007

- a. The current RFSO E60ZN-110002/E solicitation replaces the previous solicitations RFSO no.E60ZN-110002/D which is no longer active. Question 008

With regards to PART 3, article 3. Multiple Offers.

Can 2 or more non aboriginal companies submit a response as a joint venture if they are unable to submit a bid on their own?

Answer 008

In accordance with Part 3, article 3, as specified on page 13:

An offeror can submit one offer as a legal entity alone and/or one as a legal entity in a joint venture (JV) that is aboriginal as per the Aboriginal Business Certification. Question 009

In the October 25, 2013 communiqué to all existing THS holders, what do you mean by "obtain a new Standing Offer" in the section "NEXT STEP": "THS Offerors interested in obtaining a new Standing Offer, based on each bidder's current pre-qualifications in THS service streams must review the new solicitation and submit, as a minimum, a signed certification (Annex H), along with the first page of the Request for Standing Offer, in accordance with the terms of the new solicitation no later than January 3, 2014."

Answer 009

All standing offers issued as a result of solicitation E60ZN-110002/C or E60ZN-110002/D will be made inactive once Standing Offers issued under the current solicitation THS RFSO E60ZN-110002/E is finalized.

As such, if you are an existing SO holder and wish to retain this SO you must submit to be grandfathered under the new THS RFSO E60ZN-110002/E. In doing so, existing Standing Offer holders, are required to submit, as a minimum, a signed certification (Annex H), along with the first page of the Request for Standing Offer as specified in Part 3, on page 11 under Article 1.2 Submission Grid, accepting the terms and conditions as set out in this solicitation. New standing offers incorporating the new provisions in the E60ZN-110002/E solicitation will be issued to those compliant Offerors once the solicitation process is completed.

Question 010

With regard to Part 3 A Offer Preparation Instructions.

Will the crown also accept soft copies for Section I Technical piece of the Offer in the form of CD or DVD?

Answer 010

Canada has provided a response to this question, see Question and Answer 004.

Question 011

- a. Can you tell me when we can expect to hear the outcome of our request for THS SO submission under E60ZN-110002/D on September 27th, 2013 to meet the permanent refresh Q2 period which closed on October 24, 2013?
- b. Will our company need to resubmit under this new RFSO solicitation E60ZN-110002/E?

E60ZN-110002/E.

Bidders that are deemed non-compliant as a result of the Q2 evaluation under perpetual refresh solicitation E60ZN-110002/D will be considered new THS offerors for RFSO no. E60ZN-110002/E. These offerors are invited to submit their bids to qualify to offer services under the THS solicitation RFSO E60ZN-110002/E. All bidders are required to review the entire bid solicitation and as specified in Part 3, on page 11 under Article 1.2 Submission Grid, will be required to submit all requirements as a NEW Bidder.
