PART I STATEMENT OF WORK1.1 Title

Updating, delivering, and promoting an on-demand e-learning module “Outdoor Air Quality and Health and the Air Quality Health Index (AQHI)” for physicians and other health professionals

1.2 Introduction

The Air Quality Health Index (AQHI) is a federal program coordinated by Health Canada and Environment Canada, with the support of provincial and municipal governments as well as non-governmental organizations. The AQHI is a health-based communications tool, which helps people reduce their risk from short-term exposure to air pollution. The Index is presented on a scale from 1-10+, representing low, moderate, high, or very high levels of risk. At each level on the scale, health messages are provided for both general, and at-risk, populations.

An evaluation of the national Air Quality Health Index program conducted in February, 2010, recommended Health Canada prioritize outreach to at-risk populations. Engaging healthcare professionals is one of the most effective ways to reach at-risk populations. Healthcare professionals are considered to be credible sources of information, and their advice resonates strongly with patients. They are also in regular, often one-on-one contact with at-risk people. Since 2009, the AQHI e-learning Accredited Course has been available to health professionals through the University of British Columbia, in two separate contracts.

Since Health Care professionals are a difficult group to target, and their awareness of the AQHI is generally low, the AQHI is seeking to continue to offer an e-learning, fully Accredited Course available through a major learning institution. Physicians and other health professionals need to continue to be better informed about the AQHI, and the connection between air quality and health, in order to increase their patients’/ clients’ awareness of the AQHI and to support them in using it effectively.

1.3 Estimated Value

The total value of any contract resulting from this Request for Proposal (RFP) shall not exceed an all-inclusive sum of $80,000 taxes extra.

1.4 Objectives of the Requirement

To update, accredit, deliver, and promote the AQHI on-demand e-learning module for physicians (e.g. family physicians, pediatricians, respirologists, cardiologists, public health physicians) and other health professionals (e.g. public health inspectors and nurses, asthma educators).

1.5 Background, Assumptions and Specific Scope of the Requirement

In 2009, Health Canada contracted with the University of British Columbia’s (UBC) School of Continuing Education to develop an AQHI e-learning module for healthcare professionals. The module was available through the UBC School of Continuing Education until August 31, 2011, when accreditation for continuing education credits through the College of Family Physicians of Canada (CFPC) expired. A second accredited course was offered starting in February 2012, through UBC’s School of Population and Public Health. The accreditation for this course expires on January 31, 2014.

The accreditation of the AQHI e-learning course is a lengthy process. In order to re-accredit the AQHI e-learning module through College of Family Physicans of Canada (CFPC), a panel of physician reviewers must be recruited to review the course content. A ‘needs assessment’ may be required, as well as the creation of new content in the form of case studies or clinical scenarios. Finally, the existing course content must be updated to include any new or emerging science, as well as developments in the AQHI program since the course was first created in 2009. Once these updates are completed, the course can be accredited with a number of other professional bodies in addition to CFPC, although the CFPC's requirements remain the most stringent.

Recognizing that physicians are inundated with information on a variety of topics and that air pollution may be perceived as a low priority issue, it is important that once updated, and re-accredited, the e-learning course is widely promoted to increase uptake and success. Marketing, communication and the development of a national strategic promotion and marketing plan is an important objective in ensuring the success of the course over the period of the contract.

As an existing or potential supplier to the Department, you must obtain a PBN to avoid possible delays of any contract award. It is Health Canada's intention to use this sourcing system for all its procurements of goods and services to which the trade agreements do not apply.

SRI is a database of suppliers who have registered to do business with the Government of Canada. The PBN is created using your Canada Customs and Revenue Agency Business Number to uniquely identify a branch, division or office of your company. Unlike many existing departmental vendor databases, your information in SRI is accessible to all federal government buyers. SRI can help to open up new opportunities with the federal government for requirements not posted on the electronic tendering service, Buy and Sell.

14.0 BASIS OF AWARDING CONTRACT

Highest Compliant Combined Rating of Technical Merit and Price:

It is understood by the parties submitting proposals that, to qualify, bidders must meet all mandatory requirements as well as the minimum score identified for the point-rated criteria. The contract will be awarded based on a determination of best value taking into account both the technical merit of the proposals and the price evaluations. To arrive at an overall score achieved by a firm, a weighting has been established whereby technical merit will be valued at 75% of the bid and price at 25%.

The responsive bid with the highest combined rating of technical merit and price will be recommended for award of a contract. In the event two or more responsive bids have the same highest combined rating of technical merit and price, in descending order of the overall scores obtained for all the technical evaluation criteria subject to point rating detailed in Part III Bid Selection Process; the responsive bid obtaining the highest overall score being ranked the highest will be recommended for award of a contract.

The table below illustrates an example where the selection of the contractor is determined by a 75/25 ratio of the technical merit and price, respectively.

EXAMPLE ONLY

Basis of Selection - Highest Combined Rating of Technical Merit (75%) and Price (25%)
Bidder	Bidder 1	Bidder 2	Bidder 3
Overall Technical Score	88	82	92
Bid Evaluated Price	$60,000	$55,000	$50,000
Calculations	Technical Merit Points	Price Points	Total Score
Bidder 1	$88 / 100 \times 75 = 66$	$50,000 / 60,000 \times 25 = 20.83$	86.83
Bidder 2	$82 / 100 \times 75 = 61.5$	$50,000^* / 55,000 \times 25 = 22.73$	83.93
Bidder 3	$92 / 100 \times 75 = 69$	$50,000^* / 50,000 \times 25 = 25$	94

ANNEX "B"
Financial Proposal Format

This Cost/Price Proposal is to be submitted separately.

Bidders meeting ALL Mandatory Requirements and achieving the minimum number of points specified for R1, R2, R3 and R5 and obtain an overall of 60% will be evaluated on the basis of their Financial Proposal.

The Financial Evaluation will be carried out by the Contracting Authority independent of the Evaluation Committee responsible for evaluating the Technical Proposal. Financial Proposals will be evaluated based on the methodology detailed below.

All of the information required in this section MUST appear in the Bidder's Financial Proposal ONLY. The Bidder's Financial Proposal MUST be submitted in a sealed envelope, separate from the Bidder's Technical Proposal if sending it in by mail or a separate document if sending it electronically. The Bidder's failure to comply with this condition could result in the Bidder's Proposal being declared non-compliant and being given no further consideration.

Failure on the part of the Bidder to provide the information required within the Financial Proposal Table(s) will result in HC deeming the Bidder's Proposal to be non-compliant, with the Proposal being given no further consideration by HC.

Rates provided by Bidders should not include such things as travel and administration for evaluation of the Cost/Price Proposal. Similarly, per diems should be exclusive of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) and/or the Harmonized Sales Tax (HST). All Bidder rates/per diems are to be exclusive of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) and/or the Harmonized Sales Tax (HST).

Resource Category Per Diems

Using Table "A" below, for each Resource Category, the Bidder MUST provide a firm, all-inclusive per diem rate (CAD) for which their resources have been proposed for the term of the Contract(s). The per diem rate is inclusive of all costs and profits required for the proposed individual to complete the work (note: per diem rates are not to be quoted as ranges).

The firm, all-inclusive per diem rate is to be exclusive of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) and/or the Harmonized Sales Tax (HST). Such amounts will be added upon Award by HC.

The Financial Proposal will be used to calculate 25% of the overall score.

Bidders should indicate the proposed per diem rate for all members of the proposed project team.

The rates and prices specified below, when quoted by the Bidder, include any of the following expenses that may need to be incurred to satisfy the terms of any contract that may result from its bid:

- a. all travel and living expenses for work performed within the National Capital Region (NCR). The NCR is defined in the National Capital Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. N-4, S.2. The National Capital Act is available on the Justice Website: <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/N-4/>;
- b. any travel expenses for travel between the Contractor's place of business and the NCR; and
- c. any travel and living expenses for the relocation of resources to satisfy the terms of any resulting contract. These expenses cannot be charged directly and separately from the professional fees to any contract that may result from the bid solicitation.

The inclusion of volumetric data in this document does not represent a commitment by Canada that Canada's future usage of the services described in the bid solicitation will be consistent with this data.
