QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question 1:

Can we use another "meta-aramid" blend which will meet the specification or we have no choice but to use actual "100% Nomex IIIA" yarn to manufacture the woven product.

Answer 1:

As long as the proposed product meets all the testing requirements listed in Table I and/or Table II of the specification, it will be deemed acceptable.

Question 2:

Pertaining to the Patterns for the uniforms, we would like to know if there is already different patterns for every size requested (around 40 different size requirements). Each size of jacket e.g. Short XS, S, L, XL and as such require a different pattern. If there is only a single pattern for the large size, the bottom line of the bid will be affected to reflect the additional cost of creating new patterns.

Answer 2:

Patterns for all required sizes, including special sizes, will be provided by the RCMP to the contractor following contract award. The patterns are the property of the RCMP and must be returned directly to the RCMP upon completion of the contract.
