Project Title:*Phase 0 Study on a Canadian Instrument contribution to the NASA Mars 2020 Mission

---

The Request for Proposals is modified as follows:

REMOVE:

Closing Date: January 27 2014, 14h00

INSERT:

Closing Date: February 3 2014, 14h00

---

Question-1: We respectfully request some clarification on the relationship between the subject CSA RFP, and the NASA Announcement of Opportunity (AO), NASA NNH13ZDA018O, with which this RFP is closely associated.

The NASA AO indicates that a bidder's conference was conducted on October 28th, 2013, that a required letter of intent was due on November 4th, 2013, and that the NASA AO proposal submission deadline is January 15th, 2014. We note that the first two of these dates had already passed prior to the release of the subject RFP. We appreciate that the response to the NASA AO focuses on content that is different from that required by the subject RFP.

Clarification questions include:

Question 1-a: Can a proposal be submitted in response to the subject RFP if one has not attended the NASA bidder's conference and already sent the required letter of intent to NASA?

Answer 1-a: This RFP is independent of the NASA AO.

Question 1-b: It is not clear how one receives the required letter of acknowledgement from CSA. Should this letter be requested prior to the submission of the response to the subject RFP? Or is the letter provided by CSA upon receipt of a proposal?

Answer 1-b: The CSA will not be issuing letters of Acknowledgement.

Question 2: In light of CSA not being in a position to support the NASA Mars 2020 Instrument AO referenced in this solicitation, does CSA still intend to proceed with this Ph 0 study procurement?

Answer 2: Yes the CSA will be proceeding with the Instrument Phase 0 Studies.
