Question 1

Must ALL Resident Site Project Administrator Liaison (RSPA) team members hold a NATO Secret clearance at the Request for Proposal stage, or we can request after the Contract award?

Answer

Please refer to the Request for Proposals, section SR2 – Mandatory Requirements.

“The Proponent and all proposed personnel MUST hold a valid NATO SECRET clearance OR a Government of Canada SECRET security clearance or above by the time of this RFP bid closing (Proposal Delivery deadline in A7). Proponents MUST provide the security clearance number of all proposed personnel within 48 hours of the request from DFATD. Failure to do so may render the Proposal non-compliant.”

Therefore, we confirm that the Proponent and all proposed personnel must hold a SECRET NATO security clearance OR the Government of Canada SECRET security clearance by the time of RFP bid closing.

ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE RFP REMAINS UNCHANGED.
