Description of the changes as follows (Excerpt of the Synopsis to be published in SACC Version 2014-1 on March 1, for the Revised Integrity Provisions): The title of Section 01 entitled "Code of Conduct and Certifications" has been changed to "Integrity Provisions". A new subsection 8 is added to establish a Time Period of 10 years within which suppliers who have been convicted of offences or have received a conditional or an absolute discharge will be ineligible to do business with PWGSC. The text of subsection 9 has been revised to expand the list of offences that render convicted suppliers ineligible to do business with PWGSC including those who have pleaded guilty to a listed offence or have received an absolute or conditional discharge. A new subsection 10 is added to expand the ineligibility conditions to include similar offences in foreign jurisdictions. A new Subsection 11 is added to extend the Integrity Provisions to subcontractors. A new subsection 12 addresses preventive measures associated with the Time Period. The text of subsection 13 has been revised to clarify the circumstances when Canada may invoke the Public Interest Exception. A new subsection 14 is added to specify that these provisions do not apply to governments and entities controlled by a government.
