The Integrated Harvest Planning Committees and Joint Management Committees were established by DFO Pacific Region to provide formal advice and make recommendations to DFO. They are the primary contact for DFO for international and cross-sectoral communication and advice, and provides advice to the Department on operational decisions related to fisheries management in the Pacific Region.

DFO undertakes bi-lateral consultation with sector organizations including but not limited to the Commercial Salmon Advisory Board (CSAB), the Sports Fish Advisory Board (SFAB), First Nations Salmon Coordinating Committee (SCC), and the Hake Advisory Panel to develop fishing plans and communicate information related to stock status and the views of other sectors. These consultations improve departmental decision-making processes, promote understanding of fisheries and strengthen relationships. Additional information on the various advisory processes is available at:

<http://www.pac.dfo-mpo.gc.ca/consultation/index-eng.html>

2.0 Requirements

2.1 Tasks, Activities, Deliverables and Milestones

The facilitator is required to provide impartial support to the fisheries management advisory and consultation processes. The facilitator is required to ensure that the fisheries management advisory and consultation processes run effectively, develops recommendations on dealing with harvest opportunities within the required timeframe, and follows the Terms of Reference for the advisory body.

With the DFO Salmon Resource Manager:

- Develop the agenda in consultation with the Agenda Committee
- Clarifies official committee members and alternates
- Verifies representation/attendance of participants
- Ensure information is available to all participants on an equal basis
- Ensure that an accurate record of meetings is prepared, with assistance from a designated recorder
- Ensures that files/issue/action items are being following up on.
- Documents meeting decisions
- Documents any actions that members may be assigned.

The Facilitator needs to:

- Summarize and focus discussion
- Enforce the Committee Charter/TOR
- Encourage active participation of all members
- document the recommendations/decisions and where there is not consensus, document differing views.
- Mitigate conflict

- Ensure that files/issues are being followed up on
- Maintain respectful discussion and provide opportunities for all members to speak
- Ensure that all participants can hear proceedings
- Provide recommendations on improvements to the process
- Assist the Committee with prioritizing and establishing the work of sub-committees with clear Terms of References as required.

This work will require:

- Facilitation of up to 10 in-person meetings (2 day each), agenda committee meetings and sub-committee meetings (10 half day meetings).
- Use of conference calls or web meetings, where appropriate, to set up or follow-up on meetings or sub-committees.

Notes:

- Recommendations of the Committee are based on consensus.² Silence will be interpreted as consensus.
- On issues where there is not consensus, the Facilitator will summarize the differing views at the meeting.

- The Facilitator, after consultation with the Committee, may provide time in the meeting agendas for formal presentations requested by the Committee.

² Consensus is the process for making decisions, in this case decisions on what recommendations to put forward to the Department. Its main feature is that no action is taken unless all members of the group can support the action, or agree not to obstruct it. Consensus does not require that everyone be in complete agreement, but only that all will be willing to accept a decision.

At the beginning of all meetings, the facilitator briefly sets expectations about the contributions expected from Committee members; clarifies process, and reminds the Committee about established ground rules and the Committee charter that will assist them in disputes, and establish some acceptable norms for meetings.

Notes:

- Meetings are generally held in person in the Lower Mainland of British Columbia, and/or by conference call and webinar; and
- Meetings will be scheduled well in advance (minimum two weeks) to allow participants adequate time for preparation. However, under exceptional circumstances, meetings may be called with shorter-notice.
