On page 17, it reads:

Before issuance of a Standing Offer or a Supply Arrangement, the Bidder must hold a valid organization security clearance as indicated in Part 6A - Standing Offer and Part 7A - Supply Arrangement.

When I looked at the "Security Requirements for PWGSC Bid Solicitations - Instructions for Bidders" (<http://www.tpsgc-pwgsc.gc.ca/app-acq/lc-pl/lc-pl-eng.html#a31>) document on the Departmental Standard Procurement Documents Web site, I found this paragraph:

Instructions for Bidders

The following information provides suppliers with guidelines to follow when there is a security requirement associated with a Public Works and Government Services Canada (PWGSC) bid solicitation.

Bidders and subcontractors that currently do not meet any of the security requirements identified in the PWGSC bid solicitation should initiate the security screening process immediately, as outlined below:

1. Bidders (including any subcontractors, if applicable) that are not registered in the Industrial Security Program (ISP) of PWGSC's Canadian Industrial Security Directorate (CISD) must ask to be registered in the ISP. Bidders should submit the request by e-mail to the Contracting Authority named in the PWGSC bid solicitation. The request must include the following information:
 - a. Solicitation Number for which the registration is requested;
 - b. name of the Bidder;
 - c. address of the Bidder's Office in Canada;
 - d. telephone, fax numbers and e-mail address, as applicable;
 - e. name of President, CEO or contact, as applicable;
 - f. language preference (English or French); and,
 - g. the Bidder's Procurement Business Number (PBN).

Are we to send that information to you to initiate the screening in advance of the bid?
