

Is the staff to perform the work within 2 official languages?

Services can be provided in both official languages dependent on the offender who is being treated and their preference. English is however the primary language to be used.