Hospitality Services

Questions and Answers

The following shall be read in conjunction with and shall form an integral part of the Request for Proposal (RFP).

Question 1:

In reference to the evaluating requirements of the Request for Proposal, do we need to provide a total of 45 resumes and consenting forms for each resource?

Answer 1:

The Bidder is not required to provide 45 resumes for each resource but must explain how it will be able to collect that number of resources at our request. For example, if 30 person work directly for the company, how will the Bidder go about to fill the remaining 15 resources?

The Bidder is not required to provide the resumes and consent forms for each 45 resources when submitting their proposal but the evaluation of proposal will be done in accordance by the identified weighting points.
