Question 1:

Mandatory Requirement 3 states that the bidder must provide information on three evaluation studies, and refers bidders to the 2009 federal evaluation policy :

Must each study presented have addressed all of the five core evaluation issues?

Answer :

Consistent with the information provided in Footnote 1 in the RFP, all studies referenced as part of this requirement must have addressed all five Core Issues of relevance and performance as outlined in the Treasury Board Directive on the Evaluation Function.

Question 2:

Mandatory Requirement 3 states that the bidder must provide information on three evaluation studies, and refers bidders to the 2009 federal evaluation policy :

Is the reference to "evaluation studies" exclusive to an evaluation of a program, or are other "evaluation products" referred to in the policy, such as evaluation plans, assessments, or evaluation sub-studies acceptable as "evaluation studies" for this RFP?

Answer :

Only program evaluations or sub-studies that involved assessment of all five Core Issues of relevance and performance as outlined in the Treasury Board Directive on the Evaluation Function will be considered as acceptable experience. Evaluation planning activities that reference the five Core Issues are not considered as acceptable experience.
