Question 37

For R4 Portfolio evaluation, we are wondering if you can confirm whether you would consider the National Arts Centre to be a Canadian federal government department/agency/commission/board OR a private sector client. To our understanding, they are a not-for-profit organization supported/partially funded by government, but not considered a government agency. We want to be sure that is your understanding as well, as we wouldn't want to be disqualified for having an inadequate number of private client samples.

Answer 37:

For the purposes of R4 – Portfolio Evaluation, the National Arts Centre will be considered a “Canadian federal government department/agency/commission/board.”

Question 38:

The amendment answers so far regarding certifications, say that submitting a bid is sufficient 'proof' of certification adherence. However, Page 7 'Bid Preparation Instructions' indicates that we need to submit 'Section III: Certifications (1 hard copy)'. Can you confirm that no Section III submission is necessary?

Answer 38:

At a minimum, as part of Section III: Certifications, Bidders must provide their response to Part 2 – Bidder Instructions, 3. Former Public Servant .
