This amendment is raised to address questions submitted by potential bidders. The questions appear in their original format and language. Answers to each question will appear in BOLD.

Q1) Any supplier on this standing offer need a bilingual website is this correct?

A1) Yes, suppliers are required to have bilingual websites and they must offeror all products associated to any resulting Standing Offer on their website either via a search tool or link(s) to price lists. Essentially, my clients need to be able to search supplier websites for any product they wish to purchase under the NMSO.

Q2) Under S-05 how does a distributor get name?

A2) Any distributor which also manufactures at list one (1) product identified under heading S-05, may be listed as a manufacturer. However, any distributor posing as a manufacturer under any category, will be identified as fraudulent and will be removed from the NMSO prior to award of any resulting Standing offer.

Q3) Can an Offerer be a listed manufacturer from a sub-category in Annex A ?

A3) Yes, an offerer can be listed as a manufacturer under Annex A (see Q2)

Q4) If so, does he (manufacturer) have to comply with Mandatory (5).

A4) Yes, all offerors, (manufacturers and suppliers) MUST meet ALL ten (10) Mandatory requirements.

Q4)Part 3, item 1, page 11 o 87« Prices/percentage discounts must appear in the financial offer only. No prices/percentage discounts must be indicated in any other sectino of the offer. » Part 3, item 1, Manufacturer's Suggest Retail Price List (MSRP), page 12 of 87 « As part of their Technical Offer, Offerors must provide a copy of the most recent Canadian manufacturer's suggested retail price list (MSRP) at time of bid closing.»

A4) Part 3 refers to the Offeror's price/percentage discount as requested under Annex "A". It does not refer to the Manufacture's MSRP unit pricing, which will be identical for all offerors for each manufacturer.
