

National Off-Site Storage and Document Management
Solicitation 1000016189a
Question and Answers 4

Q1. It is our understanding that based on the solicitation, third party shipments are acceptable as long as they meet the security requirements.

A1. Any subcontractor who will be performing any of the Work under the resulting contract must meet the security clearance as described in the solicitation. Sub-contractors are accepted and must be provided with the proposal.