Amendment 1

Folding Furniture

This amendment was raised to answer questions from prospective bidders:

Questions:

1- I would like to ask what does “moving weight” mean when In the line item details it requests :

“Folding Furniture
Commercial Gray Plastic Center1
Folding Bench able to hold 400Lbs1
of moving weight....”

And also

“Folding Furniture
Commercial Gray Metal Four Leg
Folding Chair able to hold 300Lbs of moving weight. Depth 15” and why does not the item 3 mention a moving weight ?

“Folding Furniture
Commercial Gray Plastic Folding
Four Leg Table able to hold
300Lbs Rectangular Shape Length”

2-the tender requires Folding Bench, and folding table, can you please confirm if both table or benches which fold in half are acceptable as well as the ones with only solid surface (surface does not fold) and only folding legs ?

3- can you further explain the “Commercial Gray Metal Four Leg Folding Chair” ?

Do you want all of the parts to be Metal, or just the legs and frame? Or do you also want the seat and back to be metal(instead of being plastic, or PVC, etc) ?

Answers

1 - Moving weight is a person's weight that moves when a person is leaning or moving up or down when taking a seat and readjusting while seated. This is not in reference to the table due to the fact people should not be sitting on the tables.

2 – Benches that fold in half are acceptable. Tables must have a solid surface with only the legs folding.
