AMENDMENT NO. 004

This amendment is raised to answer Bidders' questions.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q12. Workstream 1 - Rated criteria, R4.11.1, for the Project Manager is as follows:

"Formal education (minimum post-secondary university degree or college diploma) AND/OR professional certification ("Project Management Professional – PMP" designation from the Project Management Institute - PMI) as a project manager.

Five points for a degree or diploma and five points for a professional certification to a maximum of 10 points.

Will the crown consider amending this requirement to include other recognized project management certificates, such as Prince2 Foundations & Practitioner Certification, Masters in Project Management, or other equivalent designations?

A12. To receive 5 points for professional certification, the Bidder must demonstrate the resource bid has either a valid PMP credential from the Project Management Institute (PMI) OR the PRINCE2 Practitioner or Professional credential from the Association for Project Management (APM). PMI and APM are the accrediting bodies.

To receive 5 points for a degree or diploma in PM, the Bidder must demonstrate the resource bid has a professional advanced degree or diploma in the Project Management discipline from a recognized post-secondary degree or diploma-granting educational institution. An example of acceptable institutions can be found here:
