

Question 12:

One of the mandatory requirements is providing 3 written samples of relevant work. In the case where the length and file size of written work is excessive and external web links to written samples are available to be viewed online, as well as downloaded and printed if desired, are embedded links to samples acceptable?

Response:

Yes, embedded links to samples are acceptable in cases where the length and file size of written work is excessive and external web links to written samples are available to be viewed online.