

Question 18:

In a previous amendment CMHC confirmed that an offeror can use the same example for more than one service stream, if applicable. Can you also confirm that an offeror can use the same example for more than one sector. For example, if the offeror has done relevant work for a provincial Workers Compensation Board that work could be used as both a financial services sector (i.e. insurance) and government sector example.

Response:

The Offeror can use the same example for more than one sector, if applicable.
