Question 1: Can the Crown confirm that any work generated in this field will be done solely by the companies awarded the contract via the RFSO vehicle or will there be competing business from local contractors?

Answer 1: All electrical service work will be directed to the supplier who will be awarded the Standing Offer. It must however be noted that work is not guaranteed under a standing offer – call-ups will be made on an as and when required basis only. In the case of an emergency, if the supplier who was awarded the S.O. is unavailable AAFC could retain the services of another supplier.
