4.0 GENERAL BACKGROUND

4.1 About the Canadian Museum for Human Rights

The Canadian Museum for Human Rights was established as a Crown Corporation on August 10, 2008 through amendments to the Museums Act. It is the first national museum created since 1967 and the first national museum located outside of Canada's National Capital Region. It is also the first national museum to be created with partnership funding from federal, provincial, municipal governments and the private sector. The inauguration of the Museum is slated for 2014, in Winnipeg, Manitoba. The legislated mandate of the Museum is: "To explore the subject of human rights, with special but not exclusive reference to Canada, in order to enhance the public's understanding of human rights, to promote respect for others and to encourage reflection and dialogue."

4.2 Governing Legislation

Under the Museums Act, the Museum is a distinct legal entity, wholly owned by the Crown, which operates at arm's length from the Government in its day-to-day operations and its activities and programming. As a Crown corporation and as a member of the Canadian Heritage Portfolio, the Museum contributes to the achievement of the Federal Government's broad policy objectives.

The Museum is required to comply with a range of provisions in statutes that include the Canada Labour Code, the Canadian Human Rights Act, the Official Languages Act, the Agreement on Internal Trade and the Access to Information Act.

5.0 SCOPE OF WORK

5.1 Requirements

The Canadian Museum for Human Rights requires the services of a qualified firm to create a new Online Retail Store for gift shop sales. The physical store currently uses Counterpoint for inventory control and Gateway Galaxy for the point of sale software. All web properties and other backend systems are hosted on premise at the museum. The humanrights.ca website is based on the Drupal platform with existing integration into Alfresco, SOLR search, and Gateway Galaxy for ticketing and membership sales. The new online retail store will be a standalone microsite hosting the shopping cart with the exact same look and feel of the current humanrights.ca website supporting both of Canada's official languages. Strong consideration will be given to proponents who provide a framework that can be later merged with the existing shopping cart providing ticketing and membership sales.

5.2 Accessibility

For accessibility purposes the online tool(s) should meet the following:

WCAG 2.0 Accessibility Guidelines
<http://www.w3.org/TR/WCAG20/>
