Document Imaging Services (DIS)

Part A Questions and Answers

Question #9:

- a) Pursuant to participation in the Document Imaging Services EN929-142184/C RFP I would like to seek the following clarifications on the available RFP / Bid documents:

The following files were available for download and we would like to confirm that these represent all available items

- b) I would also, like to specifically reference the Technical Bid requirements that begin on page 114 of the PDF file. Is this table available in its original spread sheet format?
Based on the above files (as downloaded from MERX) it would seem that these particular requirements are missing from the available excel files.

We want to make sure we've obtained all necessary materials and look forward to participating in the RFP.

- c) Also, do you anticipate scheduling a Bidders Conference (per page 5 1.3.6. PWGSC may organize a Bidders' conference within the duration of RFP posting time.
Bidders are encouraged to attend at their own cost prior to submitting their Proposals.

Answer #9:

- a) In addition to the main RFP package in PDF format, there are a total of four Attachments in Microsoft Excel format, each containing several worksheets that are available for download and are part of the RFP package for Document Imaging Services Solicitation #EN929-142184/C. These files are within a zip file folder titled dis_dsp.zip and are as follows:

App1_EN Technical Bids Final20150217.xlsx
Att2_P4 EN 20150301 (2).xlsx
Att3_P4 EN 20150303.xlsx
Att4_P4 EN 20150303.xlsx

All of these documents can be found at www.buyandsell.gc.ca

- b) Attachment 1 to Part 4 – Technical Bid is a Word document and is included in the main RFP package. It was not provided as a download in its native format. Attachment 1 to Part 4 – Technical Bid is being provided to all Bidders in its original format in Amendment #004 to the solicitation. Please note that all documents provided in PDF format, including all related Solicitation amendments, take precedence over any documents provided in either Word or Excel.

- c) If more than one request is received, Canada will organize a Bidder's teleconference.
