

The following questions and answers are regarding RFSO 01R11-16-S006 for HVAC SERVICES, Lacombe Research Centre

QUESTION 1:

Under Appendix B section services required you list pneumatic control systems, electronic systems. These systems are usually the responsibility of an Instrument Mechanic. This trade is not listed, please advise.

ANSWER 1:

The trades listed under Appendix C Mandatory Requirements are capable of performing required work to pneumatic control systems and electronic control systems, an instrument mechanic is not required.

QUESTION 2:

Also refrigeration mechanic is allowed to work on gas piping and gas fired roof top units, but you are also looking for a gas fitter. Instrumentation Mechanics are qualified to work on power up to 600V, pneumatics and electronic equipment, steam equipment, heating water pipe, steam and hot water boilers and gas piping. Refrigeration mechanics can work on gas fitting, electrical to 347Volts, electronics, sheet metal ducting hot water boilers and steam boilers.

Do these tickets fit your individual ticket requirements?

ANSWER 2:

No, we are requesting individual trade certificates for each trade listed under Appendix C Mandatory Requirements.

QUESTION 3:

We did attend this mandatory site walk for the original tender so I'm wondering if we need to do a 2nd time on the re-tender?

ANSWER 3:

Yes.