B. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

No.	Questions	Answers
1	In Section 13.1d, Numbers 3 and 4 (both insurance clauses): What does “Waiver of Subrogation Rights in favour of DFATD, to the extent permitted by law” mean?	By Waiver of Subrogation Rights in favour of DFATD, to the extent permitted by law, we mean that the Bidder is responsible to ensure that the “Workers’ Compensation Insurance” and the “War Risk Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance” include a clause releasing the insured (Personnel) and the insurer (insurance company) of their right to make a claim against DFATD to the extent permitted by law. For insurance related questions, we strongly recommend you consult with your insurance company.
2	The South Sudan Program Profile document refers on p. 37 to EDRMS 7117402; 7138577. Can we have a copy	These are internal documents that will be made available to the winning consultant.
3	We respectfully ask that the Client grant an extension of the bid closing date to Friday May 29 th to allow bidders to prepare high level and thoroughly detailed bids for your evaluation.	Please see part A. above.
