Amendment 001 is raised to answer the following questions and incorporate the changes below;

Question 1 Contract security of 10% of contract price is required , is this contract price the two year price? The contract security is asked for in the form of a certified cheque or letter of credit, can it be provided in the form of a performance bond?

Answer to Question 1: The contract security of 10% is for the two year contract price inclusive of HST. No, a performance bond will not be accepted as a form of contract security.

Question 2. The tender document indicates the total square feet of the various buildings but does not provide a breakdown by type of area. To properly assess the labour requirement resulting in the best possible pricing would there be available square foot / meters breakdown of the site by types of areas ie: offices/ classrooms etc and type of flooring. If this is not available can we do our own measurements after the site visit?

Answer to Question 2: Due to security reasons, floor plans of buildings and the square foot/meters breakdown by types of area cannot be provided, however, some of the floor types are vinly, carpet, concrete heavy duty active cushioning floor for the gym and tiles for the bathrooms. Bidder's can also take measurements during the site visit. Bidder's attending the site visit are advised to bring a measuring tape .
