The following addresses questions from interested parties to this invitation and provides clarification.

1. Clarifications, Questions and Answers

- Q1: Does an attestation provided by a professional employed by the Responding Party or a member thereof, suffice as evidence of Property Management Services (for example, a chartered accountant employed by a member of the Responding Party).
- A1: Yes provided the content of the attestation satisfies the requirements. PWGSC also recommends that the reader reviews all posted solicitation documents and attachments (which includes without limitation, the solicitation document entitled Q&A - EN - 28 Sep 15.pdf on www.buyandsell.gc.ca (reference number PW-15-00696920)).
- Q2: Does an attestation provided by an architect not employed by the Responding Party who was involved on a project suffice as evidence of Property Management Services?
- A2: Yes provided the content of the attestation satisfies the requirements. PWGSC also recommends that the reader reviews all posted solicitation documents and attachments (which includes without limitation, the solicitation document entitled Q&A - EN - 28 Sep 15.pdf on www.buyandsell.gc.ca (reference number PW-15-00696920)).
