(a) any thing in relation to which there are reasonable grounds to believe an offence under this Act or the regulations has been committed, or

(b) any thing that there are reasonable grounds to believe will afford evidence with respect to the commission of such an offence, the justice of the peace may issue a warrant authorizing a park warden or enforcement officer named in the warrant to enter and search the place or to open and examine the package or receptacle, subject to any conditions specified in the warrant.

Where warrant not necessary

(3) A park warden or enforcement officer may exercise any powers under subsection (1) without a warrant if the conditions for obtaining a warrant exist but by reason of exigent circumstances it would not be practical to obtain one.

Custody of things seized

23. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) and sections 28 and 29, where a park warden or enforcement officer seizes a thing under this Act or under a warrant issued pursuant to the Criminal Code,

(a) sections 489.1 and 490 of the Criminal Code apply; and

(b) the warden or officer, or any person that the warden or officer may designate, shall retain custody of the thing, subject to any order made under section 490 of the Criminal Code.

Forfeiture where ownership not ascertainable

(2) If the lawful ownership of or entitlement to a seized thing cannot be ascertained within 30 days after its seizure, the thing or any proceeds of its disposition are forfeited to Her Majesty in right of Canada, if the thing was seized by a park warden or by an enforcement officer employed in the federal public administration, or to Her Majesty in right of a province, if the thing was seized by an enforcement officer employed by a provincial, municipal or local authority or an aboriginal government.

Délivrance du mandat

(2) S'il est convaincu, sur la foi d'une dénonciation sous serment, qu'il y a des motifs raisonnables de croire à la présence d'une chose qu'il croit, pour des motifs raisonnables, soit avoir servi ou donné lieu à une infraction à la présente loi ou à ses règlements, soit pouvoir servir à prouver la perpétration d'une telle infraction, le juge de paix peut, sur demande ex parte, signer un mandat autorisant, sous réserve des conditions qui y sont prévues, le garde de parc ou l'agent de l'autorité à visiter tout bâtiment ou tout autre lieu, y compris les véhicules, bateaux et autres moyens de transport, et à y procéder à des perquisitions ou à ouvrir et examiner tout contenant.

Perquisition sans mandat

(3) Le garde de parc ou l'agent de l'autorité peut exercer sans mandat les pouvoirs mentionnés au paragraphe (1) lorsque l'urgence de la situation rend difficilement réalisable l'obtention du mandat, sous réserve que les conditions de délivrance de celui-ci soient réunies.

23. (1) Sous réserve des paragraphes (2) et (3) et des articles 28 et 29 :

a) les articles 489.1 et 490 du Code criminel s'appliquent en cas de saisie d'objets effectuée par un garde de parc ou un agent de l'autorité en vertu de la présente loi ou d'un mandat délivré au titre du Code criminel;

Garde des biens saisis

Confiscation de plein droit

Perishable things

(3) If a seized thing is perishable, the park warden or enforcement officer may dispose of it or destroy it, and any proceeds of its disposition shall be paid to the lawful owner or person lawfully entitled to possession of the thing, unless proceedings under this Act are commenced within 90 days after its seizure, or shall be retained by the warden or officer pending the outcome of those proceedings.
