Should the anchor described above be lost or destroyed, this certificate is to be returned to the Secretary of Lloyd's Register of Shipping, London, for cancellation. If the anchor be impaired or otherwise altered, so as to destroy its identity with the certificate, the facts are to be reported to the Secretary, or one of the Society's Surveyors, in order that the certificate may be altered accordingly.

In providing services information or advice neither the Society nor any of its servants or agents warrants the accuracy of any information or advice supplied. Except as set out herein neither the Society nor any of its servants or agents (on behalf of each of whom the Society has agreed this clause) shall be liable for any loss damage or expense whatever sustained by any person due to any act or omission or error of whatsoever nature and howsoever caused of the Society its servants or agents or due to any inaccuracy of whatsoever nature and howsoever caused in any information or advice given in any way whatsoever by or on behalf of the Society, even if held to amount to a breach of warranty. Nevertheless, if any person uses the Society's services or relies on any information or advice given by or on behalf of the Society and suffers loss damage or expense thereby which is proved to have been due to any negligent act omission or error of the Society its servants or agents or any negligent inaccuracy in information or advice given by or on behalf of the Society then the Society will pay compensation to such person for his proved loss up to but not exceeding the amount of the fee (if any) charged by the Society for that particular service information or advice, or that part thereof which caused the loss.
