

Question 2

Section 1.7 of the RFP indicates that the Contracting Authority may authorize preferential pricing of up to ten percent for the purchase of more environmentally sound commodities. Given that this requirement is for professional services and not for commodities, can you please confirm that this process will not be applied to the resulting contract?

Answer 1

This is correct.