SECTION A

Questions and Answers

Question 1

Can the proposal be written in English but some materials be provided in French while others are presented in English (for example, one of the train the trainer was not translated in English considering the trainers were all French speaking. The materials is available for all courses in both languages, but the facilitator's notes and / or train the trainer material was not necessarily translated when trainers were bilingual).

Answer 1

All proposal documentation and supplemental materials can be submitted in the official language of your choice, English or French.

Question 2

In attachment 1 to Part 4, MT 7: Can you be more precise on what you would like to see?

Answer 2

As per MT7, the bidder must provide a copy of all applicable course materials in hard copy format. There are no predefined format required.
