Call for Proposals - Call 006Amendment 010*Purpose:

- A) Notice to Bidders.
 - B) To respond to questions regarding Call 006.

A) NOTICE TO BIDDERS

BCIP will host the second National Bidders' Conference on March 2, 2016. Details regarding this session and registration requirements can be found here:

English session: <https://buyandsell.gc.ca/event/national-bidders-teleconference>

French session: <https://buyandsell.gc.ca/event/national-bidders-teleconference-0>

B) QUESTIONS AND ANSWERSQuestion #86

Intellectual property: The product is innovative and has no market equivalent, and was developed by our firm entirely on its own. It is thus automatically our intellectual property.

However, to apply to the BCIP, do we absolutely have to have a permit issued by some type of office, or even a patent? According to the form, it would appear to me that we do not have to have this, but it is not completely clear.

Answer #86

The electronic proposal submission form includes Intellectual Property (IP) requirements in Mandatory Criteria MC-3 and Screening Criteria (SC) 3. If the Bidder has not yet been granted a patent, an IP licence, or other IP protection, Bidders should detail their IP strategy in their response to SC3. The IP strategy should include the Bidder's plans to protect the IP of the innovation, and if the Bidder does not plan to protect their IP they should state the reasons why. If the Bidder does not plan to protect their IP it may affect the evaluation of SC3.

ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS REMAIN THE SAME.
