This amendment is being issued in response to Bidder's questions and Canada's responses.

Q1. The amendment indicates that the closing has been moved from February 25th to 29th (page 1) but does not call out the change of date in the amendment. Is this new date of February 29th correct?

A1. Yes, February 29th 2016 is the correct closing date.

Q2. There is no mention of a technical bid in Part 3.1, Bid Preparation Instructions.

A2. Yes, that is correct. Goods must meet each of the performance capabilities and specifications found in Annex A, Requirement. This will be confirmed through an inspection and acceptance of the goods at the point of delivery.

Q3. Our product has a full pc integrated inside of the unit. In regards to the amendment, part 5.2.4, Software Publisher Certification and Software Publisher Authorization, as well as Annex "C", did you mean for this to apply to software routinely supplied, under license, with PCs, such as the windows operating system?

A3. Yes. "Software Publisher" means the owner of the copyright in any software products proposed in the bid, who has the right to license (and authorize others to license/sub-license) its software products. If software is being proposed in which your company is not the "Software Publisher", Software Publisher Authorization will be required.
