Division of Responsibilities:

Upon delivery, the Project Authority and the Offeror will inspect equipment to check for any exiting damage, check fluid levels, etc. If the equipment is not deemed serviceable, the Project Authority will refuse the units.

The Offeror is responsible for all maintenance and repair. In the event of faulty equipment/equipment breakdown during the rental period, the Offeror will replace the unit(s) within a time period agreed upon by the DND Project Authority and the Offeror.

At the time of the rental period, the Project Authority and the Offeror will perform an inspection to determine if any damage occurred during the rental period, and to check fluid levels, etc.

The Department of National Defence is responsible for damage incurred by DND personnel.

All other terms and conditions remain the same.
