Part 2 Questions and Answers

Q55. Will the holdback of the Performance Management Fee be limited to each contract year and not carry-over into a new contract year?

A55. In accordance with Part 7 - Resulting Contract Clauses 7.8.3 a) ii, performance holdback, if applied to payments made by Canada, will continue to be applied until the Contractor's performance, as measured against the agreed KPI's improves. There is no limitation by calendar year implied or intended.

Q56. Please confirm that, in addressing these plans, bidders are required to follow the DIDs for each named plan, specifically:

- DID-AJISS-PM-004 for the Data Management Support Plan;
- DID-AJISS-PM-008 for the Performance Management Plan;
- DID-AJISS-PM-007 for the Configuration Management Plan;
- DID-AJISS-PM-010 for the Disposal Management Plan; and
- DID-AJISS-PM-011 for the Contract Close-out Plan.

A56. Confirmed; bidders are required to follow the DIDs for each named plan. (See Amendment 1)

Q57. Please confirm that page limitations, if specified, in the RFP evaluation requirements, exclude introductory pages such as the title page, table of contents, revision page, list of acronyms, etc.

A57. Negative. If introductory pages such as the title page, table of contents, revision page, list of acronyms, etc., are included, they will be considered part of the total page count.

Q58. In PWS-335 and in various other PWS statements the term "origin of the vessel" is used (e.g., "The Contractor must perform SWPs in the respective Naval Dockyards and DWPs in the origin of the vessel of each ship.")

Could Canada provide a definition of the term "origin of the vessel"?

A58. Refer to the glossary attached to the PWS as, AJISS PWS Dictionary V3.0 PDF page 22/31

Q59. What is the intended use of the word "company" with respect to number of allowable attendees to the shipyard visit?

A59. The intended use of the word "company" is not synonymous with "Bidder". It is permissible to send 2 representatives from each company that may comprise a Bidder's Team. For example, "Company A" and "Company B" may or may not be within a bidding team. Both companies can send 2 representatives each.
