Amendment 1 is raised to make the following changes:

Under Annex "A" Requirement section 9.2 remove the following paragraph in its entirety:

NOTE: All persons in the Industrial Electrician and Industrial Mechanic (Millwright) trades employed by the contractor to work on this installation of the equipment must have journey person status; the exception is that all Industrial Electrician and Industrial Mechanical trade apprentices shall only be utilized when working directly with a journey person in their respective trades. The contractor shall, as part of the bid submission, must submit documentation clearly indicating the contractor's experience, in provision of electrical, mechanical and millwright services. Submission is to include the journey person(s) trade certificates and their experience as the contractor's personnel. Related training and formal courses taken by personnel must accompany the contractor's documentation.

And replace with the following:
