This amendment 003 is raised to post minutes taken at the Bidders' Conference that was held on December 16, 2016, and to answer questions received on Solicitation #ET025-171747/A as follows:

BIDDERS CONFERENCE
ET025-171747 CHARS Hospitality Furniture
Friday, December 16, 2016
X-Files Room
10:05 am to 10:25 am

In Attendance:

- Leanne Barenz, Mark Schneider, and Karen Kuzych with PWGSC Winnipeg
- Santino Ciccarella and Shavita Dhir with INAC
- Nicole Pare with Grand and Toy

- Leanne Barenz highlighted some points about the Request for Proposal. Email technical questions to Leanne Barenz. Her email address is in the RFP.
- On the first page of the RFP is the bid receiving address plus the solicitation closing date which is January 16, 2017 at 2 p.m. CST.
- There is an error on the first page as it shows 2 addresses. This will be corrected in an amendment. The destination address will be Cambridge Bay.
- Any bidder interested in a debriefing after the solicitation closes can request one within 15 working days.
- CLCA that applies to this procurement is the Nunavut Land Claims Agreement.
- Standard Instructions can be found in the Standard Acquisitions Clauses and Conditions Manual on the Buy and Sell website.
- Submit questions no later than 7 calendar days prior to the bid closing date. This gives time to answer any questions, have translations completed, and the amendment sent out. We prefer not to extend the bid closing date due to time crunches.
- Bid preparation instructions request bidders provide: 2 hard copies of the technical bid, 1 hard copy of the financial bid, and 1 hard copy of certifications.
- There is Mandatory Technical Criteria in this requirement as well as the Point Rated portion which details the calculations and how the final results will be arrived at.
- The Inuit Benefits Plan is optional but if you can meet the requirements, they are detailed within the solicitation.
- In the RFP it indicates certifications that are required with the bid and also declaration of convicted offenses, if this applies.
- Prior to Contract award, we will request Integrity Provisions which is a list of your Board of Directors and the Federal Contractors Program for employment equity.

- Part 6 is the Contract Clauses. Delivery date is on or before June 19, 2017. Again, we are dealing with some time crunches so as of right now, that is the date.
- The Project Authority will be detailed in the resulting Contract.
- The Basis of Payment is slightly different than seen in the past as setting up as milestone payments. You'll need to complete the Claim for Payment form PWGSC-TPSGC 1111. There is a link included for this form. Invoicing Instructions are also slightly different than in the past again using this form.
- Mark Schneider, PWGSC Winnipeg, reviewed the technical specifications. This procurement is to furnish a total of 10 housing units: one duplex and one eight-plex. There are 2 different drawings in the RFP package. The houses are being fabricated. They should be ready on or about April 1, 2017.
- The intent is to allow you to take over the house for the install of the furniture. You would be responsible for the installer's health and safety requirements, protecting the buildings, etc., as outlined in Division 1.
- Prior to shipping (as shown on Annex B, the Basis of Payment), we are looking for a shop drawing review. As part of your bid submission as part of various product identification, after award, we want to validate those to ensure they are products we are looking for. Given the location of Cambridge Bay, Nunavut with air freight requirements, we don't want to ship products there only to realize they don't meet the requirements resulting in having everyone dealing with the collective waste of money. There is a monetary component in the Basis of Payment to get money flowing to you.
- Appendix A to the Basis of Payment, in the commodity schedule, there are 19 different items. Item 1, the bunk bed frame and mattress, is actually a feature desirable which is why it's listed in Annex A1. At the moment, users don't have a need for bunk beds but they want to have that flexibility and would want to have a matching set so would be looking for something compatible.
- Annex A2 outlines the Mandatory Criteria and Annex A3 outlines the Point Rated Criteria. You must meet all the mandatories and point rated would be as per your Proposal.
- Inuit Benefits are also once again only if you choose to do that and it impacts the pricing implications.
- As alluded to, the houses should be ready by April 1. We did put out the milestones to ensure there is adequate time including approximately 1 month to ship items. The process is up to you but the most likely would be by land freight to Yellowknife, flying in the equipment from Yellowknife to Cambridge Bay. That all takes time so that is recognized in the proposed schedule and once the furniture is in Cambridge Bay, coming up and doing the install. The install can be on or before and can be discussed once awarded.
- In the package, there is a Compliance Matrix to complete which is found on the Buy and Sell website. There are various tabs including the desirable bunk beds as mentioned by Mark. There is the mandatory criteria in each of these tabs including the point rated as well. Point rated describes what points you will be allocated and what they'll be for. The more details provided, the easier it will be to evaluate and the easier it will be to see how your products align with our requirements. Cross-referencing to page numbers on documents would be greatly appreciated.
