Amendment No. 005

This amendment is being raised to provide responses to Requests for Clarification.

REQUESTS FOR CLARIFICATION

Q1. Rated Requirements 3.2.5.d) i: Is the Table of Consultant Team Personnel restricted to single side of one 11"x17" sheet or single side of multiple 11"x17" sheets?

A1. As per 3.2.5 d) i., present table on a single side of one 11"x17" sheet.

Q2. Appendix C – Price Proposal:

There is no line item provided to identify Proponent's disbursements. Are we to assume such disbursements should be embedded in the Fixed Fees for Services?

A2. Yes, refer to clause R1230D (2016-01-28) for further information. Disbursements that are to be identified are listed under Appendix C – Price Proposal Form (Revision 1), Disbursements RS 6*.

Q3. Appendix C – Price Proposal:

Does the Maximum Total Amount for Disbursements include line for Sub-Total Disbursements + the Sub-Consultant Disbursements?

A3. The line "Maximum Total Amount for Disbursements" is the same amount as amount entered on the line "Sub-Total Disbursements". Disbursements that are to be identified are listed under Appendix C – Price Proposal Form (Revision 1), Disbursements RS 6*.

Q4: Amendment No. 4: Appendix C – Price Proposal: Disbursements

As the Geotechnical Field Work is not defined, is it correct to assume the pre-construction testing such as boreholes, stone coring and mortar testing is included in the $100,000 Allowance?

If so, a separate amount for mortar testing during the construction phase should be identified on the line item for Materials Sampling and Testing. Please advise.

A4: Yes, it is correct to assume it is part of the $100,000.

Mortar testing during construction is not part of the RFP. All field testing during construction, including mortar testing, will be issued as a separate contract as required.

All other terms and conditions of the solicitation remain the same.
