Solicitation Amendment No. 07

This solicitation is hereby amended to provide the following questions and answers

Q3. What is the color in question seems to be an office supplier name and not the laminate supplier can you please confirm a code and supplier of laminate for the color

A3. The laminate is made by Teknion and High pressure laminate Urban walnut

Q4. Are the tables delivered assembled?

A4. The items arrive unassembled and will be assembled on site.

Q5. Will the tender be accepting alternate products, if so what is the process to get alternate products accepted?

A5. Only from the specs provided and must be same colour.

Q6. Page 2; Item 2.1.1 SACC Manual Clauses. B4024T - No Substitute Products. I have read that article and am I to understand that if the product has a part number, manufacturer name or model number, there can be no substitution. However, in this case would I be correct to say, the contractor can submit a product as long as it matches the description as explained in ANNEX "A", page 9 of the tender.

A6. Yes
