

Note that entire dock and flotation device is included in the scope of work of the bid. Reference in structural drawings and notes by Tacoma Engineers stating “designed by others” refers to the bidder’s own resources. Specific requirements relating to the work of “others” is defined in the structural documents.