Amendment #005

The salad dressing line up that was requested was for "Cal-Wise" this is a proprietary item to Kraft Foods. They own the name Cal-Wise. It has always been known CSC to want this specific brand for the retail bottles. The new proposed pack size of 6/case is more in line with a No-Name style of product. Is this in fact correct?

Yes no name would be acceptable, "Cal-Wise" has been changed to "Lite" in attached spreadsheet.

Question

There was a statement on the table syrup item #69. There is in fact a product available to the entire industry made by ED Smith foods and it is a NSA = No Sugar Added" syrup that has been approved by CSC for years. A Lite product will not be of the same specifications. Can you clarify what is wanted.

Would be accept products identified as no sugar added

Question

There was a mention to revise the pudding powders. There are still many sources to purchase this product in a 6x2.27kg format which in fact is the more economical than moving to a 2x1kg format. Please advise which size is required.

No concern with changing to 2.27kg packaging
